

Showtime at HMT

HMT Aberdeen have announced four new shows will be staged at the venue this Autumn.

Glamour model and actress Abi Titmuss is to head the cast of the 25th anniversary production of the Olivier Award-winning comedy Up 'n' Under along with the Agatha Christie Theatre Company production of Witness for the Prosecution, the new hit comedy Busting Out! and a stage production of the beloved 19th Century tale Lark Rise to Candleford.

Running for one week during September, Abi Titmuss stars in John Godber's hilarious sporting drama Up 'n' Under as a gym instructor attempting to kick an unruly bunch of amateur Rugby League misfits into touch in just eight short weeks.

The show will be on for one night only on Wednesday, September 15.

Their up-front and out-there breast-based contortions are intercut with rousing song and dance sequences, hilarious sketches, a shadow play and brilliant stand-up comedy.

Also running during September following the success of The Hollow, The Unexpected Guest, And Then There Were None and Spider's Web, the Agatha Christie Theatre Company will stage the gripping courtroom masterpiece Witness for the Prosecution.

The star-studded cast includes Denis Lill, Ben Nealon, Robert Duncan, Peter Byrne, Jennifer Wilson and 60s teen idol Mark Wynter.

Following the success of the award-winning BBC television series, the stage-adaptation of the heart-warming portrayal of 19th Century country life, Lark Rise to Candleford, begins a week-long run at HMT in November.

Seen through the eyes of Laura Timms, the play follows a day in the life of the farm workers, craftsmen and gentry in the fictional hamlet of Lark Rise.

Tickets for all four shows at His Majesty's go on sale to APA Friends on Friday, June 18 and to the general public the following Friday online at www.boxofficeaberdeen.com, by phone at ☎ (01224) 641 122 and at Aberdeen Box Office at the Music Hall, His Majesty's Theatre and The Lemon Tree.
