

Thank you BUSTING OUT!

20,000 big ones from BUSTING OUT!

BUSTING OUT! has busted out with ($)20,000 big ones for breast cancer research and care thanks to a sold out charity performance for the Flinders Medical Centre Foundation.

Flinders Medical Centre doctors and nurses had a riotous time at the special performance held at Her Majesty's Theatre on March 25 as co-stars Emma Powell and Bev Killick flashed the audience with their tremendous talents.

The Busting Out production team have held sold out performances throughout the country and a special fundraising performance in each state for chosen charities. This performance hit a fundraising record for the tour which will see important breast cancer research projects at Flinders Medical Centre receive much needed funding.

Thank you Busting Out! for being so fabulous!

Finding Solutions for Breast Cancer at Flinders

Treating close to 500 new cases per annum, Flinders Medical Centre clinicians have extensive experience in the management of breast cancer.

48% of all South Australian women diagnosed with breast cancer are treated at the Flinders Breast Unit, a diagnostic and treatment centre housing world-class surgeons, radiologists, pathologists and cytologists, and the Flinders Medical Centre breast care nurses.

Pink Ribbon Ball

Held each October to coincide with national Breast Cancer Awareness month, and hosted in recent years by Channel 7's Jane Doyle, the Flinders Medical Centre Foundation's Pink Ribbon Ball is always a highly enjoyable evening with sumptuous food, flowing drinks, great prizes and entertainment.

This year the Pink Ribbon Ball turns 20 and will be held on Saturday 24th October at the Adelaide Convention Centre. To purchase tickets, please contact the Flinders Medical Centre Foundation on 8204 5216.
