■ Those mammary hot mamas, Bev Killick and Emma Powell, scored not just an uber-VIP audience member for Busting Out at Her Maj recently but also the promise to be busting clear out of the country. Broadway theatre producer David Foster jetted in to town especially to see their show and so liked what he saw he that headed back to New York City in search of a theatre for them.

■ One of the things that may have impressed the visiting impresario was the reception he witnessed when going for a “quiet drink” with the girls after the show. Hundreds of waiting fans turned on the star treatment at the Hilton Adelaide. Foster said it felt just like walking into that famous NYC night-spot, Sardi’s, with Bernadette Peters on opening night.
